

MRS-ID Awards – Nomination Guidelines and Selection Award

These are guidelines for nominating and selecting award recipients:

1. Awards Category:

- a. Lifetime Achievement Award (LAA)
- b. Excellent Materials Scientist Award (EMSA)
- c. Young Materials Scientist Award (YMSA)

2. Eligibility

a. LAA:

- Nominee may come from any academia who has involved in the area of material science and technology for at least 30 years long.

b. EMSA:

- Nominee holds a PhD degree from reputable university.
- Nominee has made an impact on research and innovation relevant to the field of materials science and technology.

c. YMSA:

- Nominee holds a PhD degree from reputable university.
- Nominee has made an impact on scientific publications relevant to the field of materials science and technology.
- Nominee should be an early career scientist with age no older than 40 years old.

d. Nominator:

- All nominators must be a member of MRS-ID.
- Nominators are selected by the Executive Board of MRS-ID

3. Nomination process

The online nomination form allows to recommend nominees for those awards awards by following guidelines as follows:

- a. Outline of nominee's key professional accomplishments.
- b. Provide weblink of published articles written by the nominee.
- c. Agree on the online statement of support.

4. Recipient Selection

The selection of award recipients is based solely on the information provided by the nominators. The award recipients are approved by the Award Selection Committee of MRS-ID. The award Selection Committee of MRS-ID will review each nomination, weighing nominees' skills and history in relation to the merits of the award. The nominee who best meets the criteria is chosen as the recipient. A written confirmation will be sent to recipients and nominators will be notified.

5. Acknowledging Award Recipient

The recipients of each award will be announced and honored at the awarding ceremony on August 2, 2018. The recipients in each award category will receive an honorary plaque as well as a monetary award.

6. Nominator at the Award Ceremony

Nominators are not obligated to speak about the person they nominated.

7. Nomination Deadline

The portal for submitting an MRS-ID Awards nomination will be close on July 27, 2018, 17:00 WIB (Western Indonesian Time)

For more information

Please send an email to the Award Selection Committee to meeting@mrs.id